Constituent Services Guide

Rubén Hinojosa
M.C.

Immigration

My office can submit congressional inquiries on your behalf for a status on: naturalization petitions, permanent residency status, deportation orders, and entry visas.

Social Security

Administration

If you experience problems with the application process for disability benefits, overpayment difficulties, Supplemental Security Income, and survivors' benefits, my office can cut red tape and expedite the process in solving these issues. If you need assistance regarding your benefits, give us a call.

Postal Service

We work with local post offices to resolve mail delivery problems and post office service matters. Contact our offices if we can be of any assistance.

Artistic Discovery

In the 15th Congressional District, I hold Artistic Discovery, the annual Congressional High School Art Competition initiated by Members of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Following the completion of these competitions, a colorful exhibition of the winning entries brightens the tunnel leading from the House Office Buildings to the U.S. Capitol each year.

Grants

My District congressional staff is ready to help municipalities, county governments and community organizations with their federal grant requests. Identifying federal grant opportunities and providing letters of support are some of the ways my office can help.

Other Federal Agencies & Legislative Information

Contact my office if I may be of assistance with the Small Business Administration, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Labor, and other federal departments and agencies. My Washington office can provide information on federal regulations that affect your daily life and programs that can help your farm or business.

Internal Revenue Service

My office can help you if you are having difficulty with IRS tax filings or appeals, or to request tax information. I can work with the Taxpayer Advocate Office on your behalf to resolve income tax refund delays.

Service Academy Nominations

Each year, I accept applications from highly qualified high school students to recommend for admission to any of the five service academies. A candidate must live in the 15th Congressional District. Contact my office for the Academy application process or visit my website at:

<http://www.house.gov/hinojosa>.

Veterans Services

Veterans who have concerns regarding their eligibility benefits may contact my office for assistance. If you are a Veteran with inquiries related to military awards and decorations, please do not hesitate to contact me as well.

Flag Requests and Washington, D.C. Tours

Constituents may purchase a flag that has been flown over the Capitol. In addition, a packet containing tour information is available for those who visit Washington, D.C. Some tours require significant advance notice. So, please contact my office as soon as you know your travel plans. While in Washington, stop by my office in the Rayburn Building.

U.S. Passports

My office can help you with the process of obtaining a passport. This may include obtaining status or requesting that your application be expedited.

Congressional Recognitions

Let me know when you or your loved ones are celebrating public official milestones, such as graduations and Eagle Scout and Gold Awards for Boys and Girls Scouts. I am always pleased to receive notifications of such achievements from my constituents and local organizations.
